

Carlos Domenech

With proven executive leadership experience, Carlos Domenech oversees all operational, financial, human resource, and information functions for SunEdison. His expertise in global supply chain functions and experience with multi-national enterprises make him an invaluable component of the SunEdison management team, for whom he provides strategic insight, operational experience and financial expertise.

Working with world-class financial partners, including leading venture capital firms, investment banks, and investors, Domenech develops innovative financing that supports the groundbreaking SunEdison solar energy services model.

Domenech's operational guidance of the SunEdison management team has brought SunEdison to a global leadership position for solar energy services.

Prior to joining SunEdison, Domenech served as CFO at Universal Pictures' International Entertainment, where he led its integration with NBC. He managed financial reporting across 25 countries and played an essential role in the growth of the company. He spent 14 years with GE, where he served in a variety of global executive roles, including CFO of GE Healthcare's EMEA Service. In this position, Domenech led oversight of operations, audits, financing and M&A activities in U.S., Canada, Asia and Latin America.

Domenech has a BS in Business Administration from Virginia Commonwealth University and an MBA from Northwestern University, Kellogg School of Management. He is a graduate of GE's Financial Management Program and Corporate Audit Staff.
